Piazzolla, Guastavino and other Argentinian Songs

Bernarda Fink, Marcos Fink, Carmen Piazzini

1h14 Digital HMC901892 March 2006

Accompanied by a noted specialist in Argentine piano music, brother and sister make a rare appearance together to honour a colourful musical heritage, the 'chamber song' born in Buenos Aires around 1900 and passed on from generation to generation right up to Guastavino and Astor Piazzolla. The subject here is love, love of a generous land, and memories: each song subtly distils a serene melancholy which has the flavour of life itself and the consciousness of the passage of time.
