EDWARD ELGAR

Complete Works for Organ

John Butt, orgue

1h06 Digital HMU907281 February 2002

Sir Edward Elgar began his career as an organist. Heard here in its entirety. Elgar's relatively small output for the instrument bears all the hallmarks of his unmistakable style: nobility, wistful cantinela, brilliant colors - captured by John Butt at the organ of King's College Chapel, Cambridge.

"A formidable talent and a splendid instinct for that most problematic of instruments, the organ"
