WOLFGANG AMADEUS MOZART

Chamber Sonatas « All'Epistola »

London Baroque

0h47 Digital HMG501137 March 2008

The 'Sonata all'Epistola', between the Gloria and the Credo.

The sonatas composed in chamber style for several instruments seem to have been imposed on the Church by Salzburg custom of the time. Following in his father's footsteps, W.A. Mozart composed 17 such sonatas between 1772 and 1780. Their structure, with a single usually rapid movement stems from the purest Baroque style, yet they belong amongst the founding works of Classical style and the concertante aspect of some of them is really stunning!

This title was released for the first time in 1984.
