JOHANN ROSENMÜLLER

Weihnachtshistorie

Cantus Cölln, Concerto Palatino, Konrad Junghänel

1h17 1 CD HMC901861 October 2004

Belonging to the same tradition as the celebrated Weihnachtshistorie of his teacher Schütz, these sacred concertos by Rosenmüller date from the period 1645-50, when the young composer was enjoying a rapid rise to eminence in the good city of Leipzig. Long before his enforced exile in Venice for 'unnatural vice', a typically Italian suavity is already clearly perceptible all through these remarkable settings of St Luke's account of the Nativity. Cantus Cölln returns here to its favourite repertoire, eight years after a first release devoted to the same composer's Vesper music.
