ARNOLD SCHOENBERG

Violin Concerto

Isabelle Faust, Swedish Radio Symphony Orchestra, Daniel Harding

1h03 1 CD HMM902341 February 2020

Almost forty years separate Verklärte Nacht (Transfigured Night) from the Violin Concerto – the former still influenced by the idiom of Brahms and Wagner, the latter deriving from the richness of that later period when Schoenberg managed to combine a multiplicity of approaches within his twelve-note system. Between post-Romantic twilight and ‘classical’ rigour, Isabelle Faust and her most faithful partners offer us an extraordinarily lively interpretation of some of the most remarkable pages in twentieth-century musical literature.
