'Lewis's mature insight into the workings and emotional characteristics of these works lends his interpretations particular power and depth.' – Daily Telegraph

'The Impromptus are a particular delight, projecting Schubert at his most lyrically flamboyant.' – The Scotsman

'Arguably the finest Schubert interpreter of his generation [. . .] Time and again, you marvel at the confidence and sureness of Lewis's playing, combined with the finesse and musicality that he has always displayed.' – Gramophone Recording of the Month, February 2012
