1h02 Digital HMU807271 Mai 2004

"This is music that aspires to convey a sudden flash of insight that resonates through eternity. Tavener [...] ranges fearlessly over time, space and tradition. The standing ovation that followed was testament to both the work's impact on the audience and his cult status."

"Tavener has made something fresh, new and timeless from apparently basic elements. "An immediate and moving metaphor for profound human experiences of transformation." – The Independent

"If there was one thing I wanted to do, it would be to re-instate the sacred into music." – JOHN TAVENER
