The Orlando Consort

1h16 Digital HMU907398 February 2006

Medieval and Renaissance gardens in music

In celebration of the floral imagery used by many of Europe's greatest composers over a span of 300 years to depict both earthly and heavenly love, the Orlando Consort sings poetic texts ranging from the sacred to the downright suggestive. Includes essays by Sir Roy Strong, Susan Hitch; and a garden design created by Christopher Bradley-Hole.

"Truly exquisite singing."
