The Toledo Summit

Orlando Consort

1h14 1 CD HMU907328 November 2003

An encounter between two powerful dynasties. The Orlando Consort revisits a fascinating meeting between two musical cultures. During his 1502 ceremonial visit to Toledo (Spain), Philip the Fair of Burgundy, and his Royal hosts, Ferdinand and Isabella, vied to display the artistic achievements of their respective realms. Music was central to all the festivities: solemn celebrations, worship, courtly banquets, dances and chivalric entertainments.

"Immaculate tuning, rhythmic concision and clear articulation of the text." -BBC Music Magazine
