Vespers for Easter Sunday

Ensemble Organum, Marcel Pérès

1h19 1 CD HM08901604 November 2019

The chant that reigned in Europe for 12 centuries.

When in the middle of the 8th century, on the initiative of Pepin the Short, the heathen Franks took up relations with the Papacy in Rome, they were so impressed by the Roman liturgy – the most exalted expression of the type of civilization they desired to promote – that they transmitted their enthusiasm to the whole of the Western world. It was thus that for twelve centuries the chant of the Church of Rome was to remain the standard liturgical practice. In this regard the Easter Vespers are particularly fascinating, both in the solemnity of their procedure and in the extraordinary fullness of their chants.

This title was released for the first time in 1998.
