HUGO WOLF

Mörike-Lieder

Werner Güra, Jan Schultsz

1h04 1 CD HMA1951882 January 2013

Hugo Wolf absolutely venerated the poems of Eduard Mörike, so much so that he 'could not bear to be away from them even for an hour'. Almost all the Mörike-Lieder burst forth miraculously between February and May 1888, and it is in composing them that Wolf found his own voice. They are indispensable for understanding the subtle, accomplished art of this last great master of the lied with piano.

This title was released for the first time in 2005.
