Jean-Guihen Queyras

1h08 1 CD HMC901973 May 2009

Three composers, three masterworks of our time performed by three orchestras – and a central element, the moving spirit behind this fine project devoted to the concertante cello: Jean-Guihen Queyras, voted 'Artist of the Year 2008' in Diapason. Three sometimes very different, yet at the same time highly complementary ways of conceiving the concerto in the 21st century.

Jean-Guihen Queyras plays a cello by Gioffredo Cappa, 1696.
